Experienced Loan Officer Returns to Union Bank

Morrisville, VT – David Silverman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Union Bank is pleased to welcome back Robyn A. Masi to the position of Vice President/Residential and Consumer Loan Officer in the Morrisville Main office.

Masi brings a well-rounded 25 years of experience in banking and lending services to her customers. Robyn will be responsible for servicing an existing portfolio of residential mortgage loans and originating, processing and closing new loans. Born and raised in Vermont, she started her career with Union Bank in 1992. Gaining extensive knowledge of residential and consumer loan products and retail banking services, she became the Branch Manager in Stowe from 2002-2014. After that, Robyn moved to western New York where she worked in the Financial Services Industry for the next three years. “We are happy to have Robyn return to Union Bank, said Silverman. Union Bank is known for offering a wide variety of loan programs and delivering excellent turnaround time for closings. Robyn has a keen ability to assist customers in their financing needs. We are excited to have her experience and dedication as part of our Mortgage Lending team.”

Masi has graduated from several banking and community service programs to include The New England School for Financial Studies, Wellesley, MA, 2012, Leadership Lamoille, Morrisville, VT in 2011. She received an Associate of Science degree in Business Management, Community College of Vermont, 2006, and attended the Northern New England School of Banking, Durham, NH in 2004. Over the years, Robyn has served as a School Board Member, Johnson Elementary School, Treasurer for the Salvation Army, Stowe, as a member of the Board of Directors for Lamoille County Court Diversion Restorative Justice Programs, and as a Panel Review Board Member for the Lamoille County Court Diversion Program.

Robyn currently resides in Jeffersonville with her family.
