Union Bank Welcomes Katelin M. Lambert to Residential Lending Team

Morrisville, VT – David Silverman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Union Bank is pleased to welcome Katelin (Katie) Lambert to the Residential Mortgage Team. Katie joins Union Bank as a Mortgage Loan Originator and will be working out of the South Burlington Loan Center office. “Katie is a great addition to the Union Bank mortgage team. We understand what a major decision buying a home can be for our customers, so we want to ensure we have the right team in place to help our customers through the process. Repeat customers, client referrals, strong relationships with builders and realtors, attractive products and outstanding customer service help drive the Bank’s successful performance,” said Silverman.

Katie will be responsible for developing and building new relationships and promoting the Bank’s residential lending services and products within the Bank’s geographical markets. Bringing over ten years of quality sales and customer service experience, Katie can assist in helping customers make good loan decisions to meet their home purchase or refinance needs.

Previously employed with Kyocera Document Solutions in Williston, VT and Otis Elevator Company in Virginia Beach, Virginia, Katie held senior sales positions in both companies.

Attending the Virginia Polytechnic Institute’s College of Business in Blacksburg, VA, Katie earned her Bachelor’s degree in Hospitality and Tourism Management. She donates her time helping with fundraising activities year round for the local Alzheimer’s Association.

She resides in Monkton with her husband Nick, and their two dogs, Ace and Bocephus.
