Heather S. Campbell Joins Union Bank's Commercial Lending Team in Williston

Morrisville, VT – David Silverman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Union Bank is pleased to welcome Heather S. Campbell to the position of Vice President, Commercial Lending Officer at the bank's new Williston office. "Heather's financial expertise and exceptional ability to build relationships is an asset for both the commercial lending team and organization as a whole," commented Silverman. "According to Silverman, "Heather is well-versed in all aspects of commercial lending and sales development, in addition to having a solid knowledge of the bank's Chittenden and Lamoille county markets. She joins a team of ten other experienced commercial lenders as we continue to grow to meet our commercial customers' needs by providing great products, exceptional personal service and local decision-making."

Heather brings a diverse professional background in accounting, business development and administration, along with combined residential and commercial lending experience for more than 22 years. Prior to joining Union Bank, Campbell was Vice President, Commercial Loan Officer for Community National Bank in Morrisville. Her earlier banking experience includes commercial and mortgage lending positions with Wells Fargo and TD Bank, NA.

Earning her B.A. in Business Administration from Johnson State College, Heather specialized in accounting and received a departmental award in Business Economics. She went on to pass the CPA exam offered by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

Active in community service, Heather has donated her time serving on several non-profit Boards of Directors to include Central VT Economic Development Corp., Lamoille Home Health & Hospice and Lamoille Community Food Share. She is also a former Morrisville Rotarian.

Residing in Williston, Heather enjoys spending time outdoors with friends, family and her horses.
